

Sharks and Life-Saving Station Museum in Ocean City

Date: Sunday, December 11, 2022

Time: 1:30 PM to 3 PM

Meeting Point: The shark in front of the OC Life-Saving Station Museum

Address: 813 S. Atlantic Ave, Ocean City, MD

Is it dangerous to swim in the Atlantic Ocean? What kinds of sharks live here? What is the biggest threat for a big shark? Join us to learn all about the good and the scary nature of sharks. Please dress warmly. We will be outside for about 30 minutes. Then, the Life-Saving Station Museum will introduce us to their fish and other sea critters. It also features Ocean City life-saving history, shipwrecks, and even mermaids.

Please sign up for the event online at actforbays.org/coastkids, or by calling the Assateague Coastal Trust office at 410-629-1538. Leave a message with your name, phone number, and number of participating kids. The event is free for members and costs $3.00 per person for non-members.

Directions: The Life-Saving Station Museum is located at the southern end of the Ocean City Boardwalk. From Salisbury and Berlin: Take Rt. 50 E and cross the drawbridge to Ocean City. Turn right onto S Philadelphia Ave. Turn right onto S Baltimore Ave and park at the inlet parking lot. Then walk to the south end of the boardwalk.

If you have any questions, please email to coastkids@actforbays.org, or call the ACT office at 410-629-1538.
